

Relaxing ownership rules that prevent media companies from owning a TV station and a newspaper in the same geographic region would be a disaster. The further aggregation of media outlets is undermining democracy and free speech in a time when it should be especially prized, and when minority voices are being squeezed out. Please uphold strong ownership rules and limits.